The 55-voice Rehoboth Christian High School Choir will be visiting Sully Christian on Thursday, March 30, 2023, at 11:30 am. A majority of the Rehoboth students are from various Native American backgrounds. The choir will lead our school in an assembly which will focus our attention on the amazing gifts we have as image bearers of our Creator. Rehoboth will share about those things which are unique to certain native cultures and celebrate all that we have in common. Students will experience the beauty of native clothing, hear about the important work of the Navajo Code Talkers, and hear how the recent pandemic was such a challenge for our community. Most importantly, the Rehoboth choir wishes to share that we are always being transformed through the work of the Holy Spirit into our roles as agents in God's Kingdom work! Please consider joining us for this time of celebration and learning.
