A WEEKLY PUBLICATION OF CHURCH FAMILY CONCERNS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRAYER PARTNERSHIP

Worship Today, February 4, 2024

This morning's sermon is titled "Pressing On." Read the thought provoking insert in the bulletin. This evening Pastor Jack begins a series on the Ten Commandments. It will be done from a New Testament fulfillment perspective, and it will be very practical and applicable for our lives. The first four commandments are all about LOVING GOD. The last six are all about LOVING PEOPLE. Pastor Jack will be referring to the Heidelberg Catechism with each commandment because it is very practical and relevant.

Church Family Prayers

- Zelda Engbers spent a couple of days in the hospital to adjust medication for blood pressure. Zelda returned home and is doing well but appreciates prayers for continued well-being.
- Out of a desire to care for all our members, each week we will be placing names of shut-ins for you to remember in prayer. This week we want to specifically remember Bob and Jan Pothoven, and Norm and Betty Schuring.

We would like to thank the CRC Church community for their support and the generosity they have in their heart as they support Sully Christian School. Each year we are blown away by the support and turnout that Food & Fun Night brings, and this year is no different. We praise God as the provider, the multiplier, and for the abundant blessings that He pours into His people. We are beyond grateful for each donation, those providing auction items or desserts, and for the hard work of so many volunteers who make this event possible. This year through your generosity, we were able to raise just over $45,000. We praise God for his blessing and for the heart of his servants.

Thrive Faith Formation Tip - Proverbs 14:31 says, "He who oppresses the poor shows contempt for their Maker, but whoever is kind to the needy honors God." Who in your community is needy? What might you do to show kindness to that person or group of people? Learn more at crcna.org/FaithPracticesProject
