This Memorial Day weekend, we want to remember all those who have served our country in the military. The banner at the front of the church is representative of the men who served in a previous time, but may it also serve as a memorial for all who have served or are serving in the military and be a reminder of the freedom we so often take for granted.

Church Directory: As we approach the new fiscal year I will be preparing a new directory. Please check that all information for your family is current and notify me if there are any changes. Thank you!
