From the Hospitality Committee: We want to express a sincere thank you to the Ruth Circle for many years of serving lunch at funerals, and to Jenice Van Rees for heading that project over the last 18 years. A job well done ladies. Sheila Pleima will be taking over for Jenice, and we thank the several volunteers who have signed up to serve in the future.

The Discipleship Committee would like to thank the talents of the chili cooks and the cinnamon roll makers for their great food, the judges for their expert judging, those who helped with the serving, the setup, the clean-up, and the congregation for their overwhelming support of our Chili Cook Off. We didn't know what to expect but as always, our Church came through! We are blessed! Thank You!
