GEMS want to express a huge THANK YOU, to everyone who came to the Soup Supper on Wednesday night! Your support is so appreciated!

Saint Francis Manor in Grinnell has reached out to our church regarding resuming worship services in their facility. The Council would like to determine the interest of the congregation in participating in services before making a commitment to this. There is a sign-up sheet in the quilt room to show interest. Prayerfully consider this opportunity to allow the residents at Saint Francis to have services in their facility.

Enjoy preparing food for others? Want to work with an awesome team? The Vacation Bible School food committee is looking for a new leader. The groundwork has been laid out to make the transition super easy! Please contact Jentri Van Wyngarden if you are interested and/or have any questions: 641-780-2191 or al.jen2010@gmail.com
