Saint Francis Manor in Grinnell has reached out to our church regarding resuming worship services in their facility. The Council would like to determine the interest of the congregation in participating in services before making a commitment to this. There is a sign-up sheet in the quilt room if you are willing to participate. Prayerfully consider this opportunity to allow the residents at Saint Francis to have services in their facility.

Mark your calendars for Thursday, March 6 beginning at 5pm as Pella Christian High School hosts the Junior High District Fine Arts Night.
