Cadet International Camporee—Early Tuesday morning, July 14, 8 cadets, 3 jr. Counselors, and 4 counselors from Sully CRC cadets will fly out to head to Calgary, AB, Canada to attend the International Cadet Camporee, returning home on Thursday, July 23. The Camp will run from Wednesday, July 15 through Wednesday, July 22 and is located southwest of Calgary near Longview. The attendees will build their own shelters in groups of 10-13, from plastic, twine, boards provided. This is a chance of a lifetime to enjoy God's beauty in the Canadian mountains, experience new adventures, and opportunities to make new friends and become nearer to our awesome God. Expected attendance is 1,500-1,600 boys and counselors with several hundred staff assisting. Sunday, July 19 will be Family Day with a church service and lunch and time for touring the campsites, several of our congregation plan to attend this fun day! All attending would like to thank the congregation for prayer and financial support already received through offering and fundraising, we cannot do this without both means of support!

We would like to request thoughts and prayers for the trip there and back and during the camp for safety and a life-changing experience for all attending. Throughout the week, pictures will be added on the website at <https://camporee.calvinistcadets.org/>. Also, an opportunity of encouragement and prayer to specific attendees would be to send an email to camporee@calvinistcadets.org, putting the camper's name, color area, and cadre number in the subject line. No mass emails to all campers, no attachments or photos, and no bad news—just a quick email of encouragement please! Listed below are the campers names and cadre info:
